KAZA, AN INSPIRATIONAL MEDITERRANEAN RESTAURANT
IN THE HEART OF SEMINYAK

Bali, January 28, 2020 – Kanvaz Village Resort, Seminyak is excited to announce the opening of KAZA Inspirational Dining, the crown jewel of the Kanvaz dining venues. Located on the second floor at Kanvaz Village Resort Seminyak Hotel, Jalan Petitenget no. 188, Seminyak, Badung, Bali.

Created by Chris Janssens of award-winning Le Quartier in Jakarta, Kaza draws its inspiration from the larger Mediterranean regions revered for the warmest hospitality traditions and incredible versatile yet elegant and sumptuous food cultures. With its name being a playful wordplay of the Spanish word casa or home, Kaza warmly welcomes guests so everyone feels right at home.

At the helm of Kaza is resident Chef de Cuisine, Cyril Boulais who started his culinary career in Paris almost twenty years ago. Chef Cyril has spent years perfecting his craft at several Michelin-starred restaurants around the globe, before beginning his tenure at Kaza. Putting forward the simplicity of the dishes, he cooks using classic and modern techniques, focusing on the produce to complement and bring out the flavor notes from each ingredient. After being inspired by cooking shows in his childhood, Chef Cyril continued his journey on presenting ingredient-focused dishes, all while exploring the possibilities of creations with flavors, taste association, and textures.

Kaza's menu is creatively crafted and curated offering family shared appetizers to the freshest seafood with timeless classic main dishes, some cooked over wood and charcoal fire. Looking for that extra special attention, entrust the talented Chef to prepare a delicate tasting menu prepared only with the finest ingredients sourced locally from Bali, Lombok or imported from the best world markets. A complete wine list features world renowned château as well as new world wines, vintage champagnes and aged liquors. Kaza's Manager is right there by your side to assist in the selection or suggest with wine pairing.

Opening hours for Pre-Dinner cocktails and Small Bites start from 16.00 with the extensive Dinner Menu served from 18.00 – 22.00 or until the last patron leaves. Kaza is fully air-conditioned and boasts an ever-romantic atmosphere overlooking the lagoon swimming pool with a configuration easily seating up to 80 people. The private room comfortably hosts up to 16 people. Additionally, two iconic Chef tables are centered in the theatrical adorned show kitchen and allows guests to fully absorb the exciting culinary energy.

Both Kaza's resident Chef de Cuisine, and the Restaurant Manager are there to personally welcome you at the picturesque walk-through kitchen, ensuring even the smallest requests are passionately attended too with sumptuous quality and warmest details. Kaza aims to provide a homey atmosphere where everyone is greeted like an old friend, with returning guests being welcomed back by their favorite dishes and drinks.
