THE PREFINITE PAPER

#5 BACK TO NATURE

Hello!

Summer is here, the sun is out and the weather is beautiful, it would be a pity not to go out and enjoy the season. While staying healthy and keeping distance with others, this edition of Prefinite Paper has enlisted some of the best excursions for you in Jakarta and beyond. A nature's weekend escape to Sentul might be a good option, plus our clients in Bali are gearing up to welcome guests as well.

Stay safe & healthy!

NATURE'S ABOUND, A HIKING TRIP TO SENTUL

As we are entering the sixth month of working from home, we understand that people would need easy escape from Jakarta to distant ourselves with all the work at home and find nearby source of nature and peace to recenter and recollect ourselves. For those of you who doesn't have the time just yet for a holiday and need a quick back-to-nature fix, thankfully, Sentul, Bogor offers sights of open-air greenery, forests and waterfall, only one hour away from Jakarta.

Start as early as 5 AM and navigate to Taman Budaya Sentul via Tol Jagorawi. After around 1,5hours by car, the time should show 6.30 AM when you make your way towards the hiking track. Meet your local guide who will lead your way through the refreshing pine forests and invigorating waterfalls. As you hone the track, view the sights of the morning dew, feel the sensation of the cold air breeze, and the smell of fresh soil and grass, these are the rare luxuries of nature that we rarely felt in Jakarta.

Visit less-travelled, and less-crowded waterfalls like Curug Putri Kencana or Curug Cibural and end the hike with a dip into the cold nature's pool! A beginner's track will take an estimate 4hours of trekking. After the refreshing morning, it is ideal to have a good coffee and breakfast nearby at an outdoor-themed, eco café, at Finch Coffee & Kitchen or have wide variety of F&B options at Sentul's open-air food court, Ah-Poong. Don't forget to take lots of pictures on your well-spent weekend and tag us at @prefinite.id if you do!
