

Prasana by Arjani Resorts Debuts a French-Inspired Dessert Bar

Something sweet and exciting is coming to Uluwatu this month!

Bali, March 2024 — Prasana by Arjani Resorts is thrilled to announce the opening of Petit Garçon, a unique dessert bar in the serene Uluwatu area. Situated within a tranquil neighborhood, Petit Garçon is poised to redefine Uluwatu's dining landscape, making it a destination for those with a sweet tooth.

Petit Garçon showcases the culinary expertise of the Resort's Culinary Director, Andika Adam, and his innovative team, featuring an exquisite array of French-inspired desserts infused with contemporary twists. Every dessert is meticulously crafted using a blend of premium imported and locally sourced ingredients, ensuring a delightful culinary experience for the guests.

"Petit Garçon translates to 'little boy' in French. The name encapsulates our desire for guests to experience the exuberance of a child in a candy shop through our curated selection of sweet treats," explained Chef Andika.

Nestled snugly alongside the popular WHIM Bar & Restaurant, Petit Garçon offers both à la carte and tasting menus, complemented by expertly crafted cocktails courtesy of our in-house mixologist.

One of the menu's standout plated desserts is the must-try Intense, a tantalizing creation boasting four distinct intensities of chocolate, varying textures, and captivating forms. A definitive choice for aficionados of chocolate. Equally enticing is the chef's recommendation, Fraisier, a contemporary reinterpretation of the traditional French strawberry cake. Deconstructed and artfully presented, it evokes the essence of summer.

Petit Garçon is on a mission to infuse joy and sweetness into Bali's southern peninsula. It delivers a delightful array of cookies, cakes, and desserts meticulously crafted with unwavering passion and precision. Positioned as one of Uluwatu's top spots for satisfying sweet cravings, Petit Garçon prioritizes quality and customer happiness, ensuring an unforgettable experience for every visitor.

Petit Garçon extends a warm invitation to patrons to elevate life's special moments with exquisite desserts. Whether it's a birthday, anniversary, or any noteworthy occasion, our cakes are crafted to transform every celebration into an unforgettable experience. Petit Garçon presents a tempting takeaway menu featuring dessert jars, petite cakes, whole cakes, and delectable tarts for those seeking sweetness in the comfort of their homes.
