

JUMEIRAH

BALI

SEGARAN Dining Terrace at Jumeirah Bali Unveils a New Immersive Culinary Journey

Guests are invited to indulge in a tantalising array of Indonesian and international cuisine.

Images available here.

Indonesia, Bali - 31 July 2024: Perched on a cliff overlooking the Indian Ocean, SEGARAN Dining Terrace offers a tantalising culinary experience with a magical setting. Graced by the ocean breeze and breathtaking sunset views above Dreamland Beach, SEGARAN Dining Terrace entices guests with a variety of daily thematic food and beverage offerings, promising to satisfy the most refined culinary desires.

At SEGARAN Dining Terrace, guests will be treated to an elevated all-day dining experience, emphasising sustainable ingredients and fresh seafood from local markets. Executive Chef Alessio Nallino and his talented team have crafted enticing offerings that showcase succulent Indonesian and international delicacies. Highlights include the Traditional Flavor Soiree every Friday from 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., the Balinese Megibung Feast, and a delectable 5-course Al Fresco Romantic Dinner available nightly from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. Additionally, the unique Seaside Enchantment dining program features a 7-course set menu dinner on the beach also available every night. The centrepiece of SEGARAN Dining Terrace is the Al Fresco Italian Night, held Tuesdays and Saturdays from 5:30 p.m. to 11 p.m., offering guests the choice of a set menu dinner or à la carte options.

The Al Fresco Italian Night highlights Chef Alessio's exceptional culinary talents, bringing the best of his Italian heritage to the table. Guests can indulge in delightful starters like Burrata Tart and Bresaola, made with the finest ingredients, followed by a captivating selection of main courses such as Manzo, featuring seared M5 striploin with black pepper sauce, and Agnelo, offering grilled lamb chop with crispy polenta, braised bell peppers, and mustard jus. Adding to the enchantment, the Al Fresco Italian Night takes place at SEGARAN Dining Terrace, creating a mesmerising ambiance for an unforgettable dining experience under the stars.

SEGARAN Dining Terrace's new offerings are a highlight of Chef Alessio Nallino's culinary vision as the new Executive Chef of Jumeirah Bali. Starting his role on 18 March 2024, Chef Nallino brings a fresh perspective to the resort's culinary outlets, including Akasa Restaurant and Bar, renowned for its grilled delicacies; Maja

JUMEIRAH

BALI

Sunset Lounge, celebrated for its afternoon tea specials; and the banqueting operations. His culinary journey, which spans his native Italy, Switzerland, Australia, and Vietnam, including a tenure at a Michelin-starred restaurant in Macau, promises a global culinary experience that will surely intrigue and excite our guests.

For more information about Jumeirah Bali, please visit <https://www.jumeirah.com/en/stay/bali/jumeirah-bali>. Follow the journey on Jumeirah's Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, Threads and YouTube with new handle @JumeirahBali.

-END-

About Jumeirah Bali:

Jumeirah Bali is a verdant water-based sanctuary with its stunning architecture designed as a poetic tribute to the lost Majapahit Empire. The resort is situated in the breath-taking Uluwatu region, perched atop a limestone cliff with awe-inspiring views of the sunset and oceanic surroundings.

The all-villa resort seamlessly blends the warmth and charm of the Balinese culture with Jumeirah's renowned Arabian hospitality, offering 123 suites each with a private pool providing panoramic vistas of the azure ocean and lush tropical landscape. Guests can also indulge in the delectable cuisine offered at the resort's three signature restaurants, rejuvenate at the Talise Spa offering Bali's first hammam, or stay active at the fitness centre.

About Jumeirah:

Jumeirah, a global leader in luxury hospitality and a member of Dubai Holding, operates an exceptional portfolio of 26 properties across the Middle East, Europe and Asia. In 1999, Jumeirah changed the face of luxury hospitality with the opening of the iconic Jumeirah Burj Al Arab and the brand is now renowned worldwide for its distinguished beachfront resorts, esteemed city hotels and luxury residences. From the contemporary Maldivian island paradise at Jumeirah Olhahali Island to the art-inspired Jumeirah Capri Palace in Italy and the modern twist on a British classic at Jumeirah Carlton Tower in London, the brand has become synonymous with warm and generous service and the ability to craft distinctive and purposeful experiences that bring joy to guests from across the world. As part of its business strategy, Jumeirah plans to double the size of its portfolio with a focus on gateway cities and resort destinations in Europe, The Americas, Africa and Asia.

www.jumeirah.com

For more information, please contact:

Made Nanda | Associate Director of Digital Marketing
Jumeirah Bali | made.nanda@jumeirah.com

Heidy Zainuddin | Account Director
Prefinite Communications | heidy@prefinite.id